

Professional Development Opportunities

Touring Exhibition Group (TEG)'s training seminars provide a full introduction to touring, whether you are looking to develop or hire exhibitions.

Beginning to Tour

is aimed at organisations and individuals who are interested in producing their own touring exhibitions and takes participants through the key stages of planning and delivery.

The seminar will

- Explore the perspective of both the producer of the exhibition and hiring venue
- Share up-to-date examples of best practice
- Provide networking opportunities

The following Beginning to Tour seminars are now available to book at www.teg.org.uk

Tuesday 2 June, Leeds Discovery Centre, Leeds
Monday 15 June, Barbican Centre, London

The day seminar is £40 for TEG members, and £60 for non-members.

TEG membership is just £60 a year, to find out more about the benefits of membership visit www.teg.org.uk

For more information about TEG's professional development programme or to discuss specific training needs email seminars@teg.org.uk.

Image © Sophie Mutevelian

TESSEMOUNTABLE

This professional development programme is kindly supported by TESS Demountable

TEG is the national network for touring exhibitions. It is an independent membership organisation concerned with promoting and supporting touring exhibitions and delivering research and training.

Follow us on twitter @TEGnetwork
www.teg.org.uk

Image © Victoria and Albert Museum, London