UKRG Membership Categories

UKRG offers four categories of individual membership;

1. Individual Membership
2. Student Membership
3. Supporter Membership
4. Online Only Membership

These are open to anyone who meets the definition of a registrar as set out in the constitution: any person working in a museum, art gallery, collection or similar organisation that has a stated remit to collect, preserve, interpret and/or display objects of artistic, historical or scientific importance.

To apply; Applicants should complete the online form found on the UKRG website join us pages. The Membership Secretary will confirm receipt of the application and issue you with the payment instructions. You will also receive an automated email from UK Registrars Group with your log in details for the website. Once payment has been received the Treasurer will send you a receipt and your log in details will become active.

We accept payments for membership by credit/debit card, bank transfer, or cheque. Please note that bank transfers and cheques may take significantly longer to process than payments received by card. If you do wish to pay by bank transfer or cheque the Membership Secretary will send an invoice with payment details; please ensure you include the invoice number with your payment.

The membership year runs from 1 September to 31 August. Members joining after 1 June and before 1 September are also eligible for membership for the following year.

The UK Registrars Group (UKRG) endeavours to protect your privacy. When you register to become a member we will hold your personal data to administer your membership and communicate with you. Using the Account Details page when logged in to our website, you can amend your personal data at any time and can choose whether your details are visible to others on our members list. Your details will be held for the duration of your membership and for two years thereafter. After this period your details will be erased.

When you join UKRG you can choose if your details appear on our website via the membership list, which is available to all members when logged in. You can control if you appear on this list and which of your details are included through your account.
